of Indianapolis, going eight rounds at 142 pounds.

A battle royal will also be put on. This branch of the programme was intrusted to Joe E. O'Connor, who has selected five good men for the go. Numerous fighters offered their services to the committee free of charge, but it was decided to pass up these offers and to put on men who seemed likely to make the best contests.

The ticket sale for the benefit is already extremely satisfactory to members of the committee, and Treasurer Killian believes that the receipts will make a most important contribution to the benefit fund.

Washington University, although they have heard that the University of Texas, whom they meet Baturday at the Stadium, has a strong team, are not worrying much over this game, but are practicing and patching up the spots for the Missouri State University game, to be played the following Baturday.

Washington is in fairly good shape for the same staturday with Texas, but Coach Boynton intends to better them for their tilt with the Tigers. By that time he expects to have Krausel in the game again, and Fritz Lehmann will provide the same back has ceased. He will not go in practice, however, until a few day and the pain in his back has ceased. He will not go in practice, however, until a few day and the pain week in uniform, helping out Boynton like the coaching end. In 1865 Fritz was a member of this knowledge to his teammates, especially on the line.

Fritz to a big, husky fellow, and greatly helps the line. He played in the first game with Washington this season, but was injured, being laid up for two weeks. He is just regaining his strength and is anxious to go in the game with Missouri.

Ruttle had an off day yesterday. Tuesday evening, when he left the field after practice, he complained of being lill. Coach Boynton although them to take off yesterday and recuperate he was removed from the field and at first it was the thought of the his collar-bone was broken. Texas is reported as having a strong team Least Saturday they held the Haskell Indians down to a score of 5 to 6. This was better than Missouri dd.

than Missouri did.

The Missouri-Purdue game at the Stadium tomorrow afternoon promises to be one of the most evenly matched and hardest-fought games in the West. Both teams are confident of whining, but only by a close score.

In 1804 di members of the Purdue team excepting two were killed in a railroad wreck while on their way to play the Indiana team for the championship of the State.

At that time Purdue had one of the airongest teams of that section, but it is reported that she is equally as strong this season.

In a wight, the Isams will be nearly on an equal, Purdue being expected to have the advantage of about a pound to the man. Both vantage of about a pound to the man. Both reams are far advanced for this season of the Clark of Paducah, Ky., read a poem, envent, and have been playing good beit.

Managers of Association Teams to Hold Rally at Kulnge's Park. The St. Louis Association Football League held an informal meeting last night and discussed the prospects for giving a benefit game for the families of the detectives killed in the pistol battle last

The league proposes to give a benefit game if they can get the players together for next Sunday, but no definite action was taken. Four teams, the Diels, Ben Millers, Thistles and Woman's Magazines, were represented.

A rally for next Wednesday evening is planned by the league. It is their intention to invite every football player in the city to Kulage's Hall, Newstead and Lee city to Kunge's Hail, Newscau and Lee avenues.

The league has its four teams completed and has nearly all the best known football players in the city signed.

Included in the list of the Woman's Magazine team is a mixture of stars from last year's Rawlings and Spalding teams.

Among those present at the meeting were George Diel, Ben Miller, Henry Kulage, Tommy Cahill, Winton Barker and George Mozelle.

EBY BEATEN BY HUESTON

Local Lad Is Now Leader in Pool Tournament for Championship of the World.

Thomas Hueston of St. Louis defeated trant Eby of New York in the cham Broadway last night, by a score of 125

Hueston administered the worst defeat to Eby that that player ever received in a championship match.

Hueston made a high run of 48, but a few minutes before this run he made a Tom used straight methods to win, He resorted very little to the safety game, and nissed only three times. His work was openly admired by the other experts surrounding the table, and Jerome Keogh, his closest rival, congratulated the St. Louis boy on his victory.

ulated the St. Louis boy on his victory.

Hueston has now won five games and lost one. If he defeats De Oro next Saturday night he will be the world's champion and the first pool champion that St. Louis has ever had.

Eby played good pool, but against the great game that the local man played he was helpless.

Hueston can still lose the only game he has to play and be tied for first honors. No player in the tournament can now beat him out of first place, and can only win the medal from him by beating him in the playoff should anyone tie the local lad.

Hueston won the lag and made four points. Eby then followed with a run of eleven. Hueston came back with five and followed with a run of fitteen. He then followed with a run of fitteen. He then followed with four innings, in none of which he made less than ten balls. In his last four innings he made two runs of fourteen, one of fifteen and went out by clearing seven points up.

The score and standing:

Hueston—4 5 15 13 15 11 12 2 14 14 12 7—125.

High run, 48.

Eby—11 16 0 1 6 4 2 12 1 0 2 0—44. High run, 12.

PREFERS CHARGES NO PATIENTS AGAINST FATHER

Lulu Rednouer of Edwardsville Denies Former Accusation Made Against John

Fleeing from her home with ropes with hich she had been bound clinging to her. Miss Luin Frieda Rednouer, who lives on Brown avenue, in Edwardsville, Ill., with her father, Lazarus Rednouer, hurried before the Grand Jury yesterday and asked for a hearing, stating that she wanted to dear her conscience. She was smarting under a beating which she said her father had inflicted, and the marks of the blows on her body were discernible. Her revelation to the jury was an astounding one, and dates back several weeks, when Miss Rednouer caused a warrant to be issued against John Ax Jr., rant to be issued against John Ax Jr., night operator at the Wabash Station at Edwardsville Junction. She made a serious charge against the young man, and he was held for the Grand Jury by Justice Joseph Edmonds in $1,400 bonds. The young man protested that he knew nothing of the matter with which he was charged, but as the girl told a connected story, he was held.

heid. Yesterday the girl told the Grand Jury that the charges she had made against Ax were absolutely false and without foundation. She said her father had compelled her to bring the accusation, and that it was against her father, instead of the telegraph operator, that she wished to prefer the charges. The Grand Jury took action at once, and last night State Attorney R. J. Brown issued a warrant against her father.

The girl's last statement was hastened by her father treating her cruelly. She charges that he tied her to a piece of furniture and beat her.

Business Men Will Not Push Accusations Against Madison Officials. At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the Business Men's Improvement Association at the Madison City Hall all charges against the Mayor and policemen of Madison, who have recently been indicted by the Grand Jury at Edwardsville for an alleged protection of a poolroom which was operated near Madison last winter, were withfarawn. Several members of the association were witnesses against the officers and volun-tarily agreed to draw up the following agreement:

Public Statement of the finnings Men's Improvements Association and the Madison Administration: For the purpose of advancing the general interests of our city oy creating a spirit of good will among our citizens, securing to all protection and just representation, to the end that prosperity and peace may reign, the members of the Rusiness Men's Improvement Association and the present officials of Madison, Ill., have decided to settle their differences agreeably, laying aside all animosity and joining hands in the upbuilding of our city. Signed: George E. Coudy and J. F. Berger, president and secretary of the Business Men's Improvement Association, and Patrick Coy, President of the Board of Trustees of Madison.

LILY CHARGED WITH MURDER. Warrant Issued for Man Exonerated

At the instance of R. J. Brown, State Attorney, a warrant was issued at Edwardsville yesterday charging Frank Lily, the Newport policeman, who killed Jeff Lewis in West Madison, with murder. The shooting happened late Saturday evening, and Lewis died Tuesday afterdeening, and Lewis died Tuesday afternoon.

The Coroner's jury, of which Maurice Meehan was foreman returned a verdict which exonerated Lily, it being shown at the examination that Lewis fired first as Lily was approaching to serve him with a Grand Jury summons.

Yesterday the Prosecuting Attorney concluded an investigation on his own account, which resulted in the issuance of the warrant.

"Instead of three shots being fired," said Mr. Brown, "there were but two, and I have several witnesses to prove this. Those shots were fired by Lily, and if an empty shell was found in Lewis's gun, I believe it was put there afterwards."

FOR DENTISTS

Subjects Who Had Promised to Attend East Side Free Clinic Fail to Appear.

The clinic arranged by Belleville dentists, at which the extraction of teeth was to have been made a feature by a St. Louis specialist for the benefit of the ville yesterday, failed because of the lack of subjects. None of the dentists in attendance desired to lose a molar or bicuspid or even a wisdom tooth, so this part of the programme had to be abandoned Arrangements had been made by Belleville dentists with subjects for the extraction clinic, and these subjects had been guaranteed freedom from pain in been guaranteed freedom from pain in the extraction process. The terms for the free pulling of their teeth were that they were to permit those of the dentists who so desired to make an examination of their mouths, and the extractions were to take place before the dentists in clinic. Doctor E. A. Woelk of Belleville stated that prior to the time set for the clinic he feared that too many subjects had been secured, but shortly before noon yesterday he began to receive excuses from subjects. Several had urgent business away from Belleville, others were ill and still others becelded that half a tooth was better than none at all, and when the time came for the clinic, not one of the dozen subjects who had promised to attend the clinic appeared.
